Headline:
Turning cold again with sharp overnight frosts and wintry showers.

Today:
Any remaining cloud and rain clearing from southern parts through the morning, giving a bright day with sunny spells and well scattered showers. Light winds and feeling cold. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Clear spells inland, light winds and another sharp frost. More cloud and breeze near the coast and through the south of the region where the odd wintry shower is likely. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Saturday:
Another cold day on Saturday with some brighter spells and also further wintry showers in places, perhaps heavy at times. Light winds inland but more breeze near the coast. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Cold on Sunday, with further wintry showers and overnight frost. Turning milder Monday, with a strengthening breeze and scattered showers. A fine dry day on Tuesday with bright spells.
